

Do you want to change the world?

Join the most powerful movement of working people in North America.

The Corporate World is about poverty wages, sweatshops, pollution, discrimination and war.

At SEIU we're about helping working people fight for justice through large scale organizing, innovative direct action, grassroots political mobilizations and community coalition building.

SEIU, the Service Employees International Union, is now recruiting activists across Canada for the launch of its Organizing Apprenticeship Program in September, 2014.

No experience necessary. Applicants must be committed to social justice.
